

RIVER: WASHED CLEAN

3

Isaiah is telling Israel some of the specifics of their sin against Him, and their upcoming defeat at the hand of the Assyrians. But in the midst God restates key truth about his dealings with people, and at the end shows a glimpse of the glorious future he has planned.

01 List some key things you believe to be true about God and how he treats people.

02 Pray and read Isaiah 3:1 - 4:6.

03 What kinds of action is God going to take against Judah and Jerusalem (3:1-3)? What will happen to Judah (v.4-7)?

04 Who does God specifically blame in verses 13-15?

05 Do you think the leaders and the wealthy understood how their daily life was seen by God? (Look up verses 9, 14b, 16).

06 How on earth did God's people find themselves in the position of misunderstanding the requirements of God?

07 We are all on a journey in our walk with God and sometimes we are blind to those areas of our life that make God sad.

a. If God wanted to convict you of a sin, where in your life are you open to God communicating this to you?

b. Have you ever prayed and asked God to reveal any such thing to you?

08 What is emphasized in 3:18-4:1?

09 Not only judgement will be carried out 'in that day' (3:7-4:1), but also redemption (4:2-6).

a. Where is the hope in Isaiah 4:2-6 that the people of Judah can look forward to?

b. How does this same kind of hope find fulfilment in the life that Jesus gives us?

10 Spend a few moments reflecting on this study. What is something that you will take away in to the week - a highlight or action?

11 Pray for each other.
