

I Will Go

Isaiah 6:1-13

5

01 Describe how you might feel if you met any of the following: the king; your children; your friends; Taylor Swift; your boss; a movie star; a billionaire; an army general; a person infected with plague. Why do we respond differently to different people?

02 Pray and read Isaiah 6:1-13.

03 In a few sentences, describe the picture of God as encountered in Isaiah's vision?

04 What are your first memories of God? Did it involve fear, anger, joy, or something else?

05 How does Isaiah describe himself after he had his vision of God (v.5)? Is that an accurate self image?

06 How does Isaiah's sense of sin and his nation's unworthiness relate to the past five chapters of prophecy?

07 Have you ever considered yourself to be sinful? How does that affect your relationship with God?

08 What happened after God took away Isaiah's guilt and sin?

09 How did Isaiah respond to God's call (v.8, 11)?

10 Have you ever experienced a distinct call by God on your life? If so, then share what that was like.

11 In verses 9-10, did God promise Isaiah success and fame? What did God promise?

11. What does God promise us if we follow him and do the tasks set before us? (eg. Acts 14:21-22; Rom 8:35-40; John 16:33).

12. What would you say to someone who asks you “what benefit do I get from believing in Jesus”? (There can be many answers, however here are two key ones: Matt 26:28; John 14:2-3).

13. Reflect on your life with Jesus. Could you recommend this life to someone else?

15 Pray for each other.
