

God's Lamp or Human License?

Psalm 119:105-120

1. Google “code to live by” and read a few aloud. Would you follow them?

2. Read Ps 119:105. In your own words explain what it means for you today.

3. Read Ps 119:105-120. Find five ways that the Psalmist speaks highly of Gods Word. Is that how you think when you pick up your bible to read it?

4. Compare verses 105 and 110. How do they relate to each other?

5. Read this passage again. From the experience of the Psalmist, would you say that putting a high value on Gods word resulted in a blessed life, or just a normal life? Discuss.

6. How would the Psalmist convince you that their actual attitude to Gods Word matched what they wrote in the Psalm? Is there anything in the Psalm that indicates this? Discuss.

7. Find 6 things the Psalmist specifically ask God to do for them. Are any of these requests relevant to our lives today? Discuss.

8. Which of these 6 requests have you prayed in this last week (or year)? If appropriate, share the circumstances that prompted you to pray that way. (Did God answer your prayer)?

9. Do you think it is ever acceptable to admit your ignorance and ask God to teach you?

Share with the group about a time when you have asked for wisdom. Was it wisdom to understand Scripture, or wisdom for a life situation you felt inadequate to handle?

Proverbs 1:7; 28:26; 1 Kings 3:4-12.

10. “I have put my hope in your word” (v.114). Share with the group a biblical story of an Old Testament character trusting in God’s Word. Does this give you hope today? Discuss.

11. If appropriate, share an example where a decision you made was guided by Scripture? Share the verse, or biblical principle if you recall it.

12. Pray for each other.
